CCSD Police Department to hold safety fair for parents and students Community event includes activities, raffle drawings and information booths

LAS VEGAS – Parents, students and members of the community are invited to attend and participate in a school safety fair sponsored by the Clark County School District (CCSD) Police Department.

The event will take place on Tuesday, Oct. 28, from 3-6 p.m. at Ed W. Clark High School, located at 4291 W. Pennwood Avenue. Activities will include a bike and pedestrian rodeo, fire truck tours and a seatbelt convincer display. Information booths for burn safety, water safety, home safety, seat belt safety and bullying prevention will be present. Free drawings for bikes, bike helmets and tickets to local attractions will take place, as well as a Halloween costume contest for children up to 12 years old.

Participants will also have the opportunity to meet and visit with television personality and BMX Pro Rider Ricardo Laguna, who is a graduate of Eldorado High School in Las Vegas.

“One of the goals of this event is to help increase safety awareness among our students and parents,” said Officer Robert Mayer. “By participating in this event, we hope to create dialogue between parents and their children that will help keep them safe, especially when they are en route to and from school.”

Persons who would like further information about the event can contact Mayer at 702-366-5244. For more information about the Clark County School District, visit <http://www.ccsd.net>.
