Del Sol Academy of the Performing Arts celebrates new Magnet program with red carpet event

The school is home to one of seven new CCSD Magnet programs

LAS VEGAS – To commemorate the first week of school, the Clark County School District (CCSD) rolled out the red carpet this morning at Del Sol High School to celebrate its new Academy of the Performing Arts, which gives students the opportunity to join the school's various programs. Radio station HOT 97.5 provided music and great energy as students posed for pictures on the red carpet.

Del Sol Academy of the Performing Arts is one of seven new CCSD Magnet programs that started in the 2015-16 school year, with more than 1,000 students enrolled in performing arts classes. Among those students, 108 were accepted into the academy as freshmen and will continue in their program of study until graduation. In the 2016-17 school year, Del Sol High School plans to accept 300 additional students into their performing arts academy.
