

About CCSD

Established in 1956, Clark County School District is the fifth-largest school district in the country, educating almost 75 percent of all students in Nevada with approximately 320,000 students enrolled in grades K-12. The district offers nationally recognized Magnet Schools and Career & Technical Academies as well as an online secondary school. Services offered by the district also include a school police department, adult education courses, special education, and partnerships with organizations such as Vegas PBS and the Public Education Foundation. As the largest school district in Nevada, CCSD plays a pivotal role in ensuring the future success, growth and advancement of the state.

Board of School Trustees Vision Statement

"All students progress in school and graduate prepared to succeed and contribute in a diverse global society."

Board of School Trustees

A seven-member Board of School Trustees establishes CCSD policy and employs the Superintendent to serve as chief executive officer. Regular meetings of the board are held on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month at 4 p.m. For information visit: ccsd.net/trustees or call 702-799-1072.

Board Strategic Imperatives

Academic Excellence – Literacy across all subject areas pre-K through 12th Grades.

Engagement – Parent, student, community, and employee engagement in learning.

School Support – Focused support, preparation, training, and resources for staff in the schools.

Clarity and Focus – Fiscal and data transparency, accountability, and strategic oversight.

Increasing Student Achievement

Pat Skorkowsky was appointed as Superintendent in June, 2013. The Superintendent is implementing the board's vision by putting a focus on six key areas:

- Increasing third-grade literacy proficiency rates
- Decreasing achievement gaps
- Increasing the graduation rate
- Increasing parent participation
- Increasing student safety and happiness
- Increasing number of students in Advanced Placement and Career and Technical courses
